EAVESDROPPING ON DREAMS

“A journey of three generations through the trauma of the Holocaust”

STAGED READING OF A NEW PLAY BY RIVKA BEKERMAN-GREENBERG

Set in modern day Manhattan and integrating original texts from The Chronicles of the Lodz Ghetto, this new play places three generations of women through an emotional journey of discovery into Rosa Eberkohn's past as a Holocaust survivor. As her daughter and granddaughter begin to recognize the impact of Rosa's experience on their own lives, family secrets are revealed through a series of recurrent dreams.
