Introducing the Psychoanalytic Institute's

Summer Institute

Short cycle, informal discussion seminars to sharpen your clinical skills and challenge your mind. Designed for the experienced psychodynamic clinician, taught by members of the Institute Faculty

Mondays Evenings, June 7, 14, 21, 8:00 p.m.–9:15 p.m.

"Real" Men and/or Real Men: Clinical/Cultural/Theoretical Issues – Donald Moss, MD

Using psychotherapeutic case material, billboards and movies, we will take up issues of authenticity and masquerade as they pertain to the aspiration to become a masculine subject and the aspiration to obtain a masculine object. Dr. Moss is the author of On Hating in the First Person Plural: Thinking Psychoanalytically About Racism, Homophobia, and Misogyny. Location: Dr. Moss's office, 80 University Place (East 11th St.), Fifth Floor.

Registration: Minimum #: 6 Maximum #: 10

Monday Evenings, June 28, July 12 and July 19, 8:15 p.m.–9:30 p.m.

Issues in Cross Cultural Treatment—Nasir Ilahi LLM

We'll consider the role of deeply internalized culture in psychoanalysis, especially when working with patients from cultures radically different than one's own. Location: Mr. Ilahi's office, 142 West End Avenue #1P (@ 66th St.)

Registration: Minimum 5 Maximum: 12

Thursday Evenings, June 17, 24, and July 8, 7:30 p.m.–8:45 pm

On Becoming a Supervisor – Marianne Goldberger MD and Rajiv Gulati MD

We often make the leap from practicing psychodynamic clinician to psychotherapy supervisor without much guidance! This seminar explores pitfalls, successes and dilemmas in the supervisory process for the new supervisor. We encourage everyone to bring examples from their clinical experience

Location: Institute Library or Conference Room, Bellevue Hospital (First Avenue @ 28th Street)

Registration: Minimum: 6 Maximum: 14

Fridays, June 18 and 25, Noon–2:00 p.m. (lunch included)

Ethical Dilemmas in Child Practice – Anita Schmukler DO

This seminar will be a conversation about specific situations in clinical practice in which the child analyst and/or supervisor face an ethical dilemma. Dr. Schmukler is writing a book, Ethical Practice and Boundary Issues in Child Analysis. She was recently elected President of the Association for Child Analysis.

Location: Institute Library or Conference Room, Bellevue Hospital Center (First Avenue @ 28th Street)

Registration: Minimum: 8 Maximum: 16

Fridays, July 9, 16, and 23 Noon–1:30 p.m. (brown bag—bring your own lunch)

Ethics in Psychoanalytic Practice—Rita Clark, MD

This course will discuss ethical approaches to situations arising in practice, focusing on how to prioritize and find solutions. Dr. Clark is co-editor of The Ethics Casebook, American Psychoanalytic Association.

Location: Institute Library or Conference Room, Bellevue Hospital Center (First Avenue @ 28th Street)

Registration: Minimum: 5 Maximum: 10

Each course costs $100. Payment in full is required at registration.
