

Contents

---

List of contributors	xi
Acknowledgments	xxii
Introduction: Moments of Waking and Reckoning: “ Now What Do I Do? ”	1
PART I
Taking a Stand	23
1 Whether to Speak or Let Things Be RICHARD TUCH	25
2 Venturing onto Thin Ice: Tiptoeing in the Wake of Empathic Failures LYNN S. KUTTNAUER	48
3 “If You Keep Talking to Me This Way, I’m Going to Quit!”: (You Talk... I Walk) ROBERT JAMES PERKINS	72
PART II
Countertransference Enactments	87
4 Countertransference Enactments: Three Times Over JILL MODEL BARTH	89
5 Feeling Misunderstood Bilaterally SUSAN ORBACH	112

PART III

What Patients Want; What Therapists Can Provide 135

6 Patient as Bean Counter 137

RINA FREEDMAN

7 Withstanding the Patient's Demand for Answers 159

JANET K. SMITH

8 To Attend or Not to Attend the Exhibit? 180

NANCY KULISH

PART IV

Having Impact: The Balancing of Power 199

9 How Far Do We Enter into a Child's Fantasy When We Play? 201

BERNADETTE KOVACH

10 A Shocking Revelation 222

DEBORAH HARMS

11 Considering Third Parties: The Question of Allegiance 242

MICHELE GOMES

12 Worried Sick about a Patient 284

RICHARD TUCH

Index 289