

IPBOOKS.net
International Psychoanalytic Books

Since 2009, we've been dedicated to publishing cutting edge books in the field of psychoanalysis: clinical, theoretical, and applied. We also publish books of interest to the wider mental health profession and a broader informed audience.

At IPBooks, you'll also find works of fiction, memoir, non-fiction, children's books and poetry penned by creative writers and selected leading scholars.

Smoke Ring Day

A Novel

By Andrew Fisher

A teenager shatters amidst the social and personal maelstrom of the 1960s. When traditional methods fail, he employs unorthodox techniques to pick up the pieces.

978-1-949093-48-3 • Paper, $19.95 • 252 Pages • Fiction

The Loving Self

By Joseph Natterson

Psychotherapy is essentially a loving process. Its aim is liberation and actualization of the loving self. Clinical examples and theoretical discussion are included.

978-1-7320533-7-3 • Paper, $29.95 • 128 Pages • Psychoanalysis

Memory's Eyes

A New York Oedipus Novel

By Cordeilia Schmidt-Hellerau

Sophocles' Oedipus alive today in its tragic and comic aspects told by a modern Antigone, candidate in training at a psychoanalytic institute: A captivating and moving tale.

978-1-949093-62-9 • Paper, $25.00 • 440 Pages • Fiction

Fela's Story

Memoir of a Displaced Family

By Phyllis Beren

A child in flight with her family in war torn Europe, and their refuge in displaced persons camps. "In prose marked by wit, elegance, and searching candor..."—Kirkus Reviews. An immigrant story of loss, resilience and survival.

978-1-949093-42-1 • Paper, $29.95 • 440 Pages • Memoir

Rage and Creativity

How Feminism Sparked Psychoanalysis

Edited by Lucille Spira

This anthology celebrates how a feminist thought collective changed psychoanalysis to better understand women's needs and desires. Sexism, racism and "othering" are in the conversation.

978-1-949093-73-5 • Paper, $25.00 • 354 Pages • Psychoanalysis, Feminism

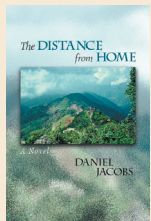

Psychoanalytic Reflections

Training and Practice

By Sandra Buechler

Why does clinical training matter? What makes treatment worthwhile? Sandra Buechler considers how hope, loneliness, sorrow, joy, and aging color therapeutic process.

978-0-9980833-9-1 • Paper $35.00 • 322 Pages • Psychoanalytic Theory

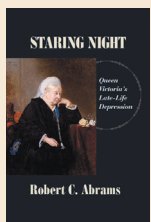

The Distance from Home

By Daniel Jacobs

A group of friends search the mountaintops of Nepal for the happiness that eludes them at home. Their unforgettable journey is gripping, hopeful, and heart-breaking.

"An absorbing, skillfully crafted novel."—American Imago

978-1-949093-09-4 • Paper, $19.95 • 228 Pages • Fiction

Staring Night

Queen Victoria's Late-Life Depression

By Robert C. Abrams

Staring Night examines the personal documents of Queen Victoria's last year of life, revealing the largely unknown late-onset depression that dictated her final decline.

978-1-949093-55-1 • Paper $35.00 • 228 Pages • Applied Psychoanalysis, History

Curious Stories of Diverse Places

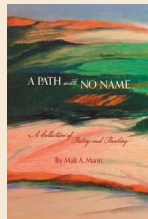

The Cod's Earring, The Click of The Reindeer, and Other Adventures and Even Some Poems

By Richard Reichbart

Beautiful stories: the Navajo, the Sami, civil rights movement in Georgia, a cave in Dordogne, and more.

"An impressive achievement"—Robert Seidman, One Smart Indian

978-1-949093-41-4 • Paper, $19.95 • 252 Pages • Fiction, Poetry

A Path with No Name

A Collection of Poetry and Painting

By Mali Mann

Dr. Mali Mann's book offers a collection of poetry and painting which brings an intimate integration of intimate words and images in an unending quest of human soul.

978-1-7320533-0-4 • Paper $24.95 • 128 Pages • Poetry

Psychiatry in Trouble

Narrative from a Damaged Profession

By James C. Beck

If psychiatry or psychotherapy is part of your life, this book will teach you something important. Read it, and you will be glad you did.

978-1-949093-67-4 • Paper, $25.00 • 430 Pages • Psychiatry, Psychoanalysis

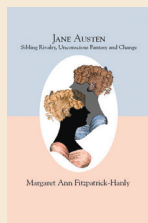

On the Pleasures of Owning Persons

The Hidden Face of American Slavery

By Volney Gay

Slavery bestows financial and narcissistic pleasures. American ideals imperil those pleasures. In response, owners split their psyches. That has poisoned American history ever since.

978-0-9965481-9-9 • Paper, $35.00 • 390 Pages • Applied Psychoanalysis

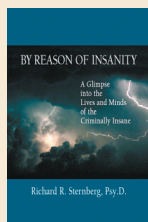

Jane Austen, Sibling Rivalry, Unconscious Fantasy and Change

By Margaret Ann Fitzpatrick-Hardy

Sibling Rivalry and Psychic Change reveals unconscious fantasy as the centre of the motivational forces and main action in Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, Mansfield Park, Emma, and Persuasion

978-1-949093-08-7 • $25.00 • 214 Pages • Psychoanalysis, Literature

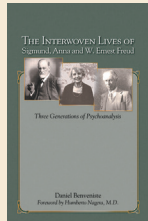

By Reason of Insanity

By Richard Sternberg

"Couldn't put it down.... Excellent...solid, well-written, very smart work.... Sternberg is an excellent story-teller...serious scholar, thinker & writer"—Lewis Aron, PhD

978-1-949093-59-9 • Paper, $35.00 • 292 Pages • Forensic Psychoanalysis

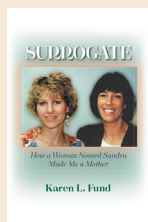

The Interwoven Lives of Sigmund, Anna and W. Ernest Freud

By Daniel Benveniste

"A creative and credible, scholarly study with a yield of staggering detail, its sources are creative and credible."—Leo Rangel, MD

978-1-495441-22-6 • Paper, $44.20 • 690 Pages • Psychoanalysis, History

Surrogate

How a Woman Named Sandra Made Me a Mother

Karen L. Fund

Surrogate is about a woman fighting the demons of infertility. It captures the relentless quest for motherhood, including two disastrous, life-threatening prior surrogate pregnancies. Heartbreaking. Messy. Poignant. Triumphant.

978-1-949093-57-5 • Paper, $19.95 • 136 Pages • Autobiography

IPBooks

IPBooks.net; (718) 728-7416

Books available on IPBooks.net and Amazon.