

IPBOOKS.net
International Psychoanalytic Books

Since 2009, we've been dedicated to publishing cutting edge books in the field of psychoanalysis: clinical, theoretical, and applied. We also publish books of interest to the wider mental health profession and a broader informed audience.

At IPBooks, you'll also find works of fiction, memoir, non-fiction, children's books, and poetry penned by creative writers and selected leading scholars.

Inter Alia

A Memoir
by Ernest Kafka

Spiked with humor, this 20th century immigrant's tale illuminates possibilities for immigration today. Using opportunities, the way he contributes to our culture inspires awe.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-60-5 • 552 pages • $40.00

Out of Aloneness

Discover the Natural Flow in Your Movement: Using Movement for a Healthier and Happier Mind, Body, and Spirit
by Jack Wiener

"Wiener's decades as teacher and psychoanalytic experience have helped many with physical and emotional issues. A marvelous tour de force which successfully synthesis psychoanalysis, dance, and movement therapy." —Benjamin Maranucci, psychoanalyst
ISBN: 978-1-949093-72-8 • 226 pages • $29.85

Staring Night

Queen Victoria's Late-Life Depression
by Robert Abrams

Staring Night examines the personal documents of Queen Victoria's last year of life, revealing the largely unknown late-onset depression that dictated her final decline.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-55-1 • 228 pages • $29.95

Memory's Eyes

A New York Oedipus Novel
by Cordelia Schmid-Hellerau

Sophocles' Oedipus alive today in its tragic and comic aspects told by a modern Antigone, candidate in training at a psychoanalytic institute. A captivating and moving tale.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-62-9 • 440 pages • $25.00

A Path with No Name

A Collection of Poetry and Painting
by Mali Mann

Dr. Mali Mann's book offers a collection of poetry and painting which brings an intimate integration of intimate words and images in an unending quest of human soul.
ISBN: 978-0-9995965-0-0 • 128 pages • $24.95

The Orgasm Fantasy

Improving Sex and Relationships
by Ofer Grosbard

The Orgasm Fantasy demonstrates by means of case studies how our orgasm fantasy remains constant throughout our lives and also shapes much of our everyday behavior.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-88-9 • 272 pages • $25.99

Chimeras and Other Writings

Selected Papers of Sheldon Bach

"I strongly recommend this wonderful, innovative and creative book which opens new windows, and in my opinion an authentic masterpiece, a must-read for all analysts." —Stefano Bolognini, M.D., Past-President of the International Psychoanalytical Association
ISBN: 978-0-9995996-4-9 • 308 pages • $35.00

All Aboard

by Howard Schwartz

All Aboard has funny, scary, and exciting adventures you can share and enjoy with your children and grandchildren and stories they might read themselves when older.
ISBN: 978-0-9995965-3-1 • 134 pages • $16.95

From Inner Speech to Dialogue

Psychoanalysis and Development
by Theodore Shapiro

Shapiro presents 50 years of study concerning how humans represent experience. He augments psychoanalytic interpretation with linguistic and developmental models enhancing the meaning of symptom, fantasy, and even fairy tales.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-66-7 • 637 pages • $39.95

Psychiatry in Trouble

Narrative from a Damaged Profession
by James Beck, M.D., Ph.D.

Psychiatry is in trouble. Once we listened to patients. Now we push pills. This memoir explains how this happened, and what to do about it.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-67-4 • 430 pages • $25.00

Rage and Creativity

How Feminism Sparked Psychoanalysis
edited by Lucille Spira

This anthology celebrates how a feminist thought collective changed psychoanalysis to better understand women's needs and desires. Sexism, racism, and "othering" are in the conversation.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-73-5 • 354 pages • $25.00

Survival Skills

Norway, Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust: A Family Memoir
by Anne-Marie Foltz

"In this stunning memoir, which is also very much a work of history, Anne-Marie Foltz tells the astonishing story of her family's displacement and survival from World War II Norway, to America" —David W. Blight, Sterling Professor of History at Yale University, author of the Pulitzer Prize-winning Frederick Douglass: Prophet of Freedom
ISBN: 978-1-949093-50-6 • 267 pages • $25.95

Exploring the Landscape of the Mind

by Janet Bachant

"Rarely does a book about psychodynamic therapy offer such scope and depth of insightful knowledge, authentic empathic clinical interactions, and an ability to articulate complex ideas." —Efrat Ginot, PhD
ISBN: 978-1-949093-36-0 • 234 pages • $35.00

Mirrored Reflections

A Memoir
by Kitty La Perriere

Internationally noted family therapist examines her inner and outer life across the shifting grounds she traverses from disintegrating Czechoslovakia to open-armed America. Intimate, informed, captivating.
ISBN: 978-1-949093-45-2 • 336 pages • $29.95

What They Bring

The Poetry of Migration and Immigration
edited by Irene Willis and Jim Haba

This anthology fills a need in psychoanalytic publishing—to understand the immigrant within each of us. Poetry, medicine for the soul, is one of the best ways to heal the hatred and fear that keep us from seeing each other's humanity.
ISBN: 978-0-9985323-5-6 • 232 pages • $19.95

Paradigms and Processes

Selected Papers of Arnold Wilson

"This luminescent volume of collected papers, spanning three decades of analytic practice, tells a story—of an analytic engagement with the most important and controversial topics of our recent collective history."
ISBN: 978-1-949093-68-1 • 724 pages • $39.95

IPBooks.net

(718) 728-7416; email: Psypsa@aol.com

Books available at IPBooks.net and Amazon.